

COMPASSION

Christ the Saviour, that has through love, shown that greatest of all compassion, the gift of His life, so that we, in the giving of His life, and accepting the gift of Love, find the new birth of the Spirit in us, that is Jesus Christ.

Only the perfect Lamb could blot out the stigma of sin. God in love, sent the gift of the perfect Lamb, so that I in the gift, have the gift of the perfect new birth.

My will, that first gift of God, had brought into life sin. Now in the use of my will, God had sent the love gift, so that I using my will, find the new birth of the Spirit of the gift of love.

Pain that I could never endure, was given to the substitute that God had sent in love, so that I in His anguish of pain that was my sin, now through my acceptance of the gift, should find the new birth of the Spirit of Jesus Christ.

Alone He came from the heart of God to face the anguish of the long road to the hill of Calvary, where for me, He would accept the penalty of my sins, death, that I in His finished works, could be found flawless in the new birth.

Salvation is mine in the acceptance of the gift of love of God that came, so that I in Him have perfect salvation in the birth of His Spirit in me.

Sin, that which had blocked my approach to God, was blotted out by the flow of the blood of Calvary. I now appear before God in the sinless conception of the new birth of the Spirit of Jesus Christ.

Into life was given by God's love the way, that I through Him, find the second birth, that is the Spirit in me, Jesus Christ.

Only you can open the Door of the heart, for He stands at the door, to come in to present you with the new birth of His Spirit.

Now is the time to accept this gift, for without Him there is no tomorrow, with Him is the new birth of eternal life, that came with the love of God.

To the memory of a man, who as my Sunday School Superintendent, had compassion on a boy who wanted love, and when the boy became a man, had the perfect example of a life that had found compassion for others in the new birth that is Jesus Christ in Him.
